MEDIA RELEASE

Trinidad & Tobago golfers successfully defended the Caribbean Seniors Golf Championships that they won in 2016 in Jamaica. In 2017 the Championship and the Classic were played in Punta Cana at the golf courses at the Paradisus Palma Real Golf & Spa Resort in the Dominican Republic.

Reynold Deonath and Deryck Gonsalves won the Francis Steele Perkins Cup in the Seniors Division shooting a 1 under par 71 today . Fabian Lee Foon retained the Higgs & Higgs Cup (Super Seniors) with a new partner Monty Chapman this year they also shot 71 today. Pauline Figuera-Raynor and her partner Amoy Chang Fong won the Ladies plus 50. The Mid-Amateurs team of Richard “Pecos” Camacho and Clint Alfred had their best round of the tournament today shooting a 72 to move up to 4th position. The winners in this division were the Barbadian team of James Johnson and Julian Jordan who shot a total score of 12 under par for the 3 rounds.

The depth and good play of the 6 men and 2 women golfers who made up the 2017 Trinidad & Tobago who made up the team is what won them the Ambrose Gouthro Cup as the Overall Seniors Champions of the Caribbean. They were well led by Manager Wayne Baptiste, who is to be congratulated for once again leading the team to victory.
