MEDIA RELEASE

Junior Golfers Compete in Florida Events

For Immediate Release:

Three Junior golfers, Sabrina Mitchell, Sol Joani and Ryan Peters are competing in the World Junior series tournament in St Augustine Florida.

Sabrina Mitchell showed great fighting spirit after shooting 95 on the first day she came in today with a much improved 81 to move up into 21st position after day 2 in the girls 15-18 division.

Ryan Peters shot his second 82 and is now in 30th position. Ryan had a triple bogey on the par 3 15 hole his 6th hole of the day and continued to struggle on the front nine, but finished strong playing his last 3 holes 1 under par.

Sol Joanni a member of the Leewards Club in Tobago and playing in only his second big event in the US, continued to find the greens very difficult but played his last 4 holes in two under par and fought his way to an 80 to go with his first round 84. Sol is now tied with Ryan on 164 and both are tied 31st in the boys 15-18 division.

Ysabelle Lawrence plays in the C.J.G.A. World Junior Challenge in Palm Harbour Florida.

Ysabelle playing on the Copperhead Course & Innisbrook Golf Resort & Golf Club - Island Course, continued to struggle on a very challenging golf course but shot an 82 to go with her first day 85. Ysabelle is tied 12th with Rachita Vasandani of Australia.
