Junior Golfers Compete in Florida Events

For Immediate Release:

Three Junior golfers, Sabrina Mitchell, Sol Joani and Ryan Peters competing in the World Junior series tournament in St Augustine Florida had varied results today

Sol Joanni a member of the Leewards Club in Tobago and playing in only his second big event in the US finally got his game together and shot level par score of 72 today. Sol finished in 23rd position and finished as the top Caribbean golfer in the Boys 15-18 division with a total of 236.

Ryan Peters shot his best round of the tournament today an 81, but dropped 4 shots in the last 4 holes to finish in 30th position. Not a bad result considering he was one of the youngest in the 15-18 division

Sabrina Mitchell got on the bogey trail today and had 11 bogies to finish with a score of 83 and in 18th position in the girls 15-18 division.

Ysabelle Lawrence competed in the C.J.GA. World Junior Challenge in Palm Harbour Florida.

Ysabelle playing on the Copperhead Course & Innisbrook Golf Resort & Golf Club - Island Course, saved her best golf for the last day shooting a 79 today for a 3 day total of 246. Ysabelle finished in 12th position.
