

Phone – 868 629 7127
Email – TandTGolf@gmail.com

MEDIA RELEASE

TRINIDAD & TOBAGO JUNIOR GOLFERS HAVE A MIXED FIRST DAY IN THE 2017 CAJGC

Trinidad & Tobago junior golfers had a mixed day on day one of the 2017 Caribbean Junior Golf Championships being played at the St Andrews Golf Course in Moka. The team sponsored by the Sport Company, Republic Bank, the R&A, Caribbean Bottlers, Boost Subway, Hadco, Stephen Ames Foundation, Bryden Pi, Signwave Caribbean Ltd, Very Exciting Things and the Trinidad & Tobago Police Service

With Sam Avey and defending Individual Champion Sachin Kumar both shooting 76 to combine to lead the 18 & under boys division. Captain Liam Bryden shot a 78 (to tie with Ryan Peters playing as an individual) in 5th place.

Zoe Correia is tied first in the 15 & under girls with the Dominican Republic's Eun Yae Kim both shooting 81 with Yeji Lee one stroke further back in third.

Chris Richards Jnr shot a fine 77 to be tied for first in the 13 and under boys he birdied his final hole the difficult 9th. Chris is tied with Justin Hastings of the Cayman Islands and Puerto Rico's Gustavo Belardo Serena Mackenzie shot 81 to lie in 2nd place behind Puerto Rico's Valeria Pacheco.

Our 14-15 boy's team of Dravid Bhim 91 and Lorenzo Kent 104 are in 7th position after day 1. With Puerto Rico's Andres Aranguren with a 74 and his team mate Pablo Robles 79 leading the way
In the 13 & under girls Chloe Ajodha is the leading Trinbagonian in 13 place after day 1

The boys 18 & under and 15 & under divisions count the 2 best scores from 3 and the other 4 division all count the best score from each team.

