SACHIN KUMAR, YEJI LEE & ZICO CORREIA LEAD THE WAY FOR TRINIDAD & TOBAGO

ON DAY 2 OF THE CAJGC

On day two of the 2017 Caribbean Junior Golf Championships being played at the St Andrews Golf Course in Moka only Sachin Kumar, Yeji Lee and Zico Correia played well today. The team sponsored by the Sport Company, Republic Bank, the R&A, Caribbean Bottlers, Boost Subway, Hadco, Stephen Ames Foundation, Bryden Pi, Signwave Caribbean Ltd, Very Exciting Things and the Trinidad & Tobago Police Service goes into the final day well behind leaders Puerto Rico

Defending Individual Champion Sachin Kumar added a 73 to his overnight 76 to now lead in the individual race by 2 strokes from Gustavo Betances of the Dominican Republic on 151.

Liam Bryden's 79 added to Sachin's 73 left them behind Puerto Rico who added two 75's today

Yeji Lee shot a fine 79 today for a 162 total to lead Haylie Turnquest of the Bahamas on 163.

Zico Correia had 76 today which is tied best in the boys 13 & under division and is now in 3rd place on 158 behind Justin Hastings of the Cayman Islands and Rangel Gustavo .

Puerto Rico's Valeria Pacheco leads the way in the girls 18 & under with 2 fine scores of 79 yesterday and 77 today. Trinidad & Tobago's Serena Mackenzie is now in 5th place after a disappointing 92 today

Our 14-15 boy's team of Dravid Bhimand Lorenzo Kent maintained their 7th position. With Puerto Rico's Andres Aranguren with a 74, 76 leading the way.

In the 13 & under girls Chloe Ajodha is the leading Trinbagonian in 13 place after day 2

The boys 18 & under and 15 & under divisions count the 2 best scores from 3 and the other 4 division all count the best score from each team.
