

Phone – 868 629 7127
Email – TandTGolf@gmail.com

MEDIA RELEASE

TRINIDAD & TOBAGO JUNIOR GOLF TEAM POSE WITH PRIME MINISTER DR. KEITH ROWLEY ON THEIR FLIGHT HOME FROM THE JUST CONCLUDED CARIBBEAN AMATEUR JUNIOR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Caribbean Amateur Junior Golf Team just finished competing in the Caribbean Amateur Junior Golf Championships in Jamaica; the tournament was played on the spectacular Caymanas Golf & Country Club where they finished 4th behind winners Puerto Rico, hosts Jamaica, the Dominican Republic. In fifth were the Bahamas, Barbados 6th, Cayman Islands were 7th with Turks & Caicos 8th and USVI IN 9TH.

Chris Richards Jnr was the star for Trinidad & Tobago losing out to Jamaican Rocco Lopez by 1 stroke in the 11-13 age group, the game coming down to the final hole of the 54 holes played. With Richards shooting 2 under par 34 on the back 9 to put pressure on Lopez. Zico Correia finished tied 5th.

Dravid Bhim finished 9th in the 14-15 age group. In the 18 & under age group Captain Ryan Peters finished 9th. In the girls under 18 Serena Mackenzie and Karina Matabadal finished tied 6th. Yoji Lee who finished tied 3rd in the 14-15 age group was the best of the local girls. In the girls 11-13 Caylyn Hosein 10th and Chloe Ajodha 11th struggled with the difficulty of the course but gave it a game effort.

The TTGA would like to thank Guardian General, R.B.C , the Ministry of Tourism for their label pins and Caribbean Airlines for their waiver of fees on the golf equipment.

The Jamaicans hospitality was superb and together with the Caribbean Golf Association this was a very well run tournament. The 2019 CAJGC will be played in the Bahamas.