Monifa Sealy in fight to get into the final qualifier for the LPGA & Symetra Tours

Monifa Sealy is in 27th place at the end of day 3 of the Stage 11 Ladies Professional Golf Tour qualifier. Monifa has shot rounds of 71, 72 and 76 today. But as she stated this evening "I am just going out there tomorrow to play and leave it all out there". The event is being played at Plantation Golf & Country Club in Venice Florida.

193 ladies from all over the world started on the first day trying to get into the final qualifier which starts on November 28th and finishes on December 4th and will be played in Daytona Beach. Monifa will be trying to become the first Trinidad& Tobago Female Golfer to make it to this the highest level of Women's Golf and only the second after Stephen Ames to make it to the elite level of Professional Golf.
