MEDIA RELEASE

Monifa Sealy into the LPGA & Symetra Tour Final Round of Qualifiers

Monifa Sealy played some great golf today to shoot a round of 72, for a 4 round total of 291 which moved her up to tied 20th position. The top 80 and ties go through to the Stage 111 Qualifying School which is the final qualifier to get onto the Ladies Professional Golf Tour.

The Final Qualifier will be played from November 28th to December 4th 2016 at the LPGA International, Daytona Beach Florida, the top 20 players will then get their LPGA Tour Card. Up to 40 and ties get status on the LPGA (which means they will get some starts depending on number of players who have entered).

Monifa is the first Trinidad & Tobago female golfer to reach this stage as she is trying to become the first to West Indian to play on the LPGA Tour.
