NOTICE: TO ALL GOLF CLUBS AND MEMBERS

The TTGA has been made aware that there are prizes being offered in tournament that are over the Limit allowable by the governing body for Golf the R&A. The allowable limit is 500 pounds sterling

Please see the reply below from the R&A

The total cumulative value of separate prizes must not exceed the prescribed limit. See Decision 3-2a/19 of the Decisions on Amateur Status, accessible on the R&A's website randa.org.

As such we are advising all clubs and tournament organizers to abide by this limit going forward this will include the recently played Chief Secretary's Tournament in Tobago. Any player accepting a prize exceeding the limit will be in danger of losing their Amateur Status.

You are also copied on the TTGA guidelines from 2011 regarding Prize values

Yours sincerely,

Clyde Abder,
President Trinidad & Tobago Golf Association
