

THE REPUBLIC BANK CARIBBEAN JUNIOR OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS 2018

Hosted at: ST ANDREWS GOLF CLUB, MOKA, MARAVAL

MEDIA RELEASE

The 9th Republic Bank Caribbean Junior Open came to a close today on the beautiful St Andrews Golf Course in Moka, Maraval. The 112 juniors who played all had a great time and thanks must go to Republic Bank for their continued sponsorship of this championship and St Andrews Golf Club for the loan of their Golf Club & Course.

The story of the day today was the scintillating play of Zico Correia in the 11-13 boys division who today shot the only subpar round of the tournament a brilliant 70 for a total of 220 today to overhaul the overnight leader Chris Richards Jnr (75) who finished on 223. In third place was Theo Jean-Noel (76) of Guadeloupe on 239.

Serena Mackenzie (80,82,82) 244 the defending Champion in the girls 16-17 age group defended her title with aplomb winning by 17 strokes from Sarah Ramphal (255), Karina Marabadal finished third on (267).

In the boys 14 to 15 age group overnight leader Demar James(79) of Antigua extended his lead to win by 9 shots with a total of 248 from Nathan Regalan(80) of Guadeloupe. Trinidad & Tobago's David Bhim(85) finished third on 263 (it must be noted that this division played from the longer Blue tees)

The girl's 14-15 age group Yeji Lee lost her title to Barbadian Emily Odwin who had three scores in the 70's (79,79,78) to total 236. Yeji had 3 scores of 82 to total 246. Ashley Michel of the Bahamas finished in third place with 266.

The girls 13 and under Barbadian Eryn Blakely(91,82,82) continued to dominate shooting a total score of 255. She beat fellow Bahamian Kyndal Campbell whom finished on a total of 289. Trinidadian Chloe Ajodha finished 3rd on 307.
