

MEDIA RELEASE

Trinidad & Tobago Victorious in the 2018 CARIBBEAN GOLF ASSOCIATION CLASSIC

Some of the male golfers who competed in the Caribbean Classic celebrating their win as overall champions. These include Ash Ali CGA President, John Henry, Denesh Ramdin, and Rodney Phillip Eighteen Trinidad & Tobago golfers competed last week in the Caribbean Golf Association Golf Classic at the world renowned Casa De Campo Golf Resort in the Dominican Republic.

The Trinidad & Tobago team due to their strength in depth in all the divisions emerged victorious once again winning the Jodi Munn Trophy in this year's Caribbean Golf Classic.

Pauline Raynor won the Ladies 2nd Flt, Amoy Chang Fong won the 3rd Flight and Brenda Clarke the Ladies 5th Flight.

Rodney Phillip won the men's 2nd flight, with John Henry 5th and Ray Singh 6th. Denesh Ramdin won the 3rd flight, with Aroon Narinesingh third, Asraph Ali 4th equal with Sherwin Seenath, following were Haydn Iman 6th and Anan Rajpaulsingh 7th. Neemedass Chandool gained 5th place in the 5th flight.