

National Player Liam Bryden wins St Andrews Club Match Play Championship

Liam Bryden, the recently crowned St Andrews Golf Club Match Play champion in the Championship division seen receiving his trophy from Nagico Manager Chris Henriques.

Liam Bryden who represented Trinidad & Tobago in both the Caribbean Amateur Junior and Senior Championships in Puerto Rico earlier this year, beat Deryck Gonsalves in the St Andrews Golf Club Matchplay in a close battle. The 15 year old Bryden eventually won on the 16th hole on Sunday October 5th.

Liam on the previous day shot 68 his lowest score in a competition at St Andrews to win the October monthly medal.